>Hi! Looks like you spent Christmas Day on your computer. I notice on your >Albert and Sadie story that you use Mankato as the birthplace of Albert. I >show his birthplace as St. Peter, which is the only place the Sandberg >family ever lived, also the home of Gustavus Adolphus College. Actually >the Sandberg farm was in Traverse township, Nicollet County. St. Peter is >the county seat. Mankato is in Blue Earth County, the next county south of >Nicollet.

>I have been trying to discover when and where Pruden's family was in >Connecticut, because of course that must have been the start of the James >and Emily story! Pruden was in the Franklin Co NY census in 1840, 1850, >1860 and in Waseca by 1870. According to Carrie Ballard's records, Matilda >Dubois Erwin was buried in Meriden, Conn in 1856. David Adelbert Erwin, >son of Pruden, said that he was baptized in Hanover, CT in 1854. So I >guess they were there between the censuses.
